Head Teacher's Notice

Friday 24th March 2017

This week began with Year 3, 4 and 5 parent consultations, and it was lovely to see so many supportive parents attend, thank you.

Mrs Short's Maths Groups have been the first pupils to use the new classroom in the extension; the children were so excited, and a common phrase used was..."Wow! This is so awesome!" Needless to say, we are thrilled with the finished project and are planning its grand opening.

On Thursday, the children celebrated with a service of Reconciliation, in preparation for Easter, and next week we will be sharing the Stations of The Cross together with artwork produced by each class.

Next week we also look forward to Class 2's Assembly on Monday, and the Easter Egg Raffle, and SAL's BIG Breakfast on Friday.

Have a happy weekend,
Miss N. Watson

Staff Bake off

The staff at school got baking for the 'SAL Bake Off Competition'. All the cakes were then sold to the pupils to fundraise for children's projects in Comic Relief.

The cakes were judged by the pupils:

Joint 2nd - Miss Hollick and Mrs Hodnett,

Joint 3rd - Mrs Maher, Miss Wheeler and Miss Watson.

Well done to all those who baked.
