Head Teacher's Notice

Friday 5th May 2017

This week the children watched the video of the 'Be Kind' campaign. It is a difficult subject to address, but the children showed great maturity whilst watching the moving accounts regarding bullying. As a school we have made a pledge to 'Be Kind' in the fight against bullying, and we ask all members of the school community to support this worthy campaign.

This week Year 5 had fantastic trips to The British Museum, again their behaviour was exemplary, and thank you to parents funding the trip; these wouldn't be able to go ahead without your support.

Next week is a big week for Year 6 taking their SATs, and we ask for you to keep the children in your prayers. Thank you. Have a lovely weekend.

Miss N. Watson

Year 5 Mayan's Trip

The children in Year 5 travelled to The British Museum as part of their study of the Mayan civilization. It was commented upon how well behaved the children were; they really are a credit to our school. Well done.

Please respect our neighbours and use the church car park to drop off and collect your child, or walk to school.

House Points

All house points will be rolled over to next week, due to the short week this week. Make sure you work hard at gaining house points for your house - Every point counts!

School Photographs Orders must be returned to school by 15th May or you can order online.

Clothes Recycling Collection

Have you completed your Spring Cleaning yet? Please start sending in your bags full of old clothes, shoes, handbags etc. (no duvets/pillows) ready to be recycled and raise valuable funds for our school. This such a good and easy way of supporting the school. so Thank you

Year 6 Remember that SAT's will not show any of the God-given talents you were born with. Although Maths and English are important, they do not define who you are. You may have skills and talents they are not, or cannot be, tested but have shone through in your personality and everyone at St Anne Line has enjoyed sharing them with you. Your SAT's are important but what is more important is for you to be exactly who you are; who God intended you to be. This weekend revise a little, relax a lot and remember this: 'Be who you are, be it well and all for the Glory of God' (St Francis de Sales).

Miss Gallagher and Mrs Spencer
