Head Teacher's Notice

Friday 8th December 2017

As we get closer to Christmas the celebrations have begun at school. The Christmas tree and Nativity scene are up, Christmas Elves are up to no good in some of the classrooms, and everyone is getting excited practising their Christmas Carol Concert songs.

On Tuesday we had the Christmas Music Concert which was attended by parents, Grandparents and members of the Parish Carpe Diem club. Thank you to all the pupils who performed so wonderfully and shared their musical skills. Thank you also to the peripatetic music teachers and Mrs Snee for helping with their pupils' preparations.

On Wednesday we received our Ofsted letter after their visit on Wednesday 22nd November. The letter was a fantastic celebration of our wonderful school. We are all ever so proud, as it recognises the dedication of all our pupils, staff, parents and Governors. Thank you to those who have sent in messages of congratulations, I will be sure to pass them on.

On Thursday Year 3 and Year 4 performed in the BCCT Christmas Concerts at Holy Trinity and St. Basil's Churches. It's always a wonderful way for the Catholic Schools in Basildon to celebrate the Christmas Story together through the pupils' wonderful singing.

Next week we look forward to the Christmas Discos and the whole school going to the pantomime to watch Aladdin.

Thank you for your continued support, and have a lovely weekend,

Miss N. Watson
