Head Teacher's Notice

Friday 15th December 2017

This week began with a snowy Monday and Tuesday, but we must thank Mr Phillips (our school site manager) who ensured that the school paths and car park were all clear to enable the children and staff to continue to move around the site safely.

The Christmas Discos went ahead, and it was great to see all the children dancing away and having fun. This year there was the exciting addition of a snow machine!

On Wednesday the children went to the Pantomime to watch Aladdin at the Towngate. The all had so much fun, and members of the public have commented on how well behaved the children were, and particularly enjoyed the pre-show singing in the theatre foyer.

Next week is going to be a lot of fun too, with all the Christmas activities happening.

Thank you for your continued support, and have a lovely weekend,

Miss N. Watson
