Head Teacher's Notice

Friday 8th February 2019

This week we continued the celebration of St. Anne Line with steel drums! It was a real carnival atmosphere with the children having fun learning how to play the steels, and then they danced the afternoon away with a whole school 'party' steel drum assembly.

Well done to the year 6 children who have worked so hard during their assessment week, proving you can have fun and work hard at school.

On Tuesday, children representing different year groups in the school competed at the cross-country competition at JHS. They did so well and kept in great spirits despite the cold and rain! Well done to all who took part.

On Wednesday, the author Jack Trelawny visited the school - the children loved listening to his stories and asking lots of questions about being an author (we definitely have some budding writers in the school!).

We ended the week with another successful 'Book Look' for the children to share their work with their parents. Thank you to all who came, and for your continued support - have a lovely weekend,

Miss N. Watson
