Head Teacher's Notice

Friday 15th February 2019

This week has been another busy week.

The children in year 4 both visited the Police Museum in Chlemsford and had a great time looking at Crime and Punishment through the ages, as part of their topic theme, plus they were able to take their own fingerprints!

Well done to Class 1 for the fantastic 'Around the World' Assembly on Wednesday, the children did so well and it was lovely for so many parents to come and support their child's learning.

This week parents, staff and governors received a copy of the feedback from the Parent's Questionnaire. The responses were so overwhelming positive, reflecting the incredible support parents give to our school - We have very high standards and expectations and strive to achieve the very best for our children.

Thank you for your continued support - have a wonderful half term break,

Miss N. Watson
