Head Teacher's Notice

Friday 10th May 2019

I hope you all had a lovely Bank Holiday weekend. Although it has been a quiet week for events in school, all the children have still been working incredibly hard. Over this weekend please say a special prayer for our Year 6 children who will be taking their SATs tests next week. We wish them all the best, and no matter the challenge that they will face next week, we are determined to keep them smiling and laughing throughout; the happiness, confidence and mental well-being of all our pupils will always remain our priority.

Have a wonderful weekend, Miss N. Watson

Prayer for Year 6

Wise God, please bless our Year 6 pupils as they sit their exams. Help them to remember all they have learned. Protect them from worry, stress and panic; give them calm minds, confidence and energy. May they give their very best, knowing it's in Your hands. Amen.

Late Collection Policy

The School Governors are now enforcing a Policy covering the late collection of pupils after school and extra-curricular clubs. This is as a result of a growing number of children having to be supervised by staff after their contracted hours. Continuous late collection will now result in a fine. Thank you for your support in collecting your child from school and clubs on time.
