Head Teacher's Notice

Friday 7th June 2019

I hope you all had a lovely half-term break. We are now into the final stretch of this academic year, and it's going to be a busy half-term, so please keep an eye on the diary dates to see what is coming up.

This week has been Science Week, and the children have been working hard completing science investigations. On Monday, Science Week began with a Circus Science Assembly followed by workshops for each class. The children, and staff, have loved all the activities this week to promote science education.

Also on Monday, our School Council children visited the Houses of Parliament, they had a great time learning about how democracy works.

On Tuesday, Year 4 had fun at Colchester Zoo as part of their Topic work - they even got to feed the giraffes!

On Thursday, we celebrated the Communicants during their Going Forth Mass at Holy Trinity, followed by a Head Teacher's Tea Party. The children looked fantastic in their First Holy Communion outfits.

We ended the week with the children taking part in a fantastic Harry Potter inspired (and sometimes soggy) 'Kidditch' Tournament ...the children loved it!

Have a wonderful weekend,

Miss N. Watson
